Insight Session

Preparing to Hear God's Call

Audrey Hollenberg-Duffey, Director of the Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center

A significant component of faith is the belief that God still speaks, yet many doubt their ability to hear. Even congregations that keep busy doing religious things may not be paying attention to God’s purposes for them. This session will introduce Susquehanna Valley Ministry Center’s “Preparing to Hear God’s Call” resource, which highlights the importance of ongoing discernment and provides practices that individuals and congregations can do to deepen spirituality, vitality, and faithfulness.
